March 5, 2022

"St. Patrick worshipped God on the seventh-day Sabbath. In fact, it was the custom of early Celtic churches in Ireland, as well as Scotland, to keep Saturday as a day of rest according to the fourth commandment. (See Moffat, The Church in Scotland, p. 140 and Skene, Celtic Scotland, Vol. II, p. 349.). So before donning green-colored glasses each March, it might be well for us to scrape the moss of mythology off our history— both civil and religious—and consider the facts for ourselves."
