

Sermon by: pastor Pavel Goia

Offering: Good News Fellowship budget

"The darkness of the evil one encloses those who neglect to pray. The whispered temptations of the enemy entice them to sin; and it is all because they do not make use of the privileges that God has given them in the divine appointment of prayer. Why should the sons and daughters of God be reluctant to pray, when prayer is the key in the hand of faith to unlock heaven's storehouse, where are treasured the boundless resources of Omnipotence? Without unceasing prayer and diligent watching we are in danger of growing careless and of deviating from the right path. The adversary seeks continually to obstruct the way to the mercy seat, that we may not by earnest supplication and faith obtain grace and power to resist temptation."

~ Ellen White, "Homeward Bound," 143

"Jesus says, 'Every branch in Me that bears fruit, I will prune, so that it will be even more fruitful.' Be careful that you remain in Christ when you are being pruned. . . If you are to have power in prayer, you must be careful that you remain in Christ when the sharp pruning knife is cutting everything away. . . Say this: 'Though He slay me, yet will I hope in Him. Your Lord warned you, when you first came into the vine, that you would be pruned and cut closely. And if you are now feeling the pruning process, you must not think that some strange thing has happened to you. Cling to Jesus all the more closely. Say to Jesus, 'Cut, Lord! Cut to the quick, if you wish. For I will still cling to You; to whom shall I go? You, and You alone have the keys to eternal life.'"
